For Reference
Not to be taken
from this library

A photograph of a large, leafy tree with a white sign attached to its trunk. The sign has red text that reads: "For Reference", "Not to be taken", and "from this library". In the background, a group of people are sitting on the grass in front of a brick building. The scene is outdoors, likely on a campus.

Dedication

For 37 years you unselfishly gave to the students of Drexel High School your time, talents, understanding, and true concern for the welfare and education of each student. You have been an inspiration to those who have taught here and a guide to those who have studied here. If fate is kind, perhaps this school will be blessed with more teachers who will try to follow in your footsteps to become as great a teacher as you have become. Although we, as well as those who have graduated before us, know that we could never repay you for all that you have done, the Senior Class of 1965 wishes to dedicate this edition of the CAVALCADE to Mrs. FAYE T. RUSSELL, a remarkable teacher and friend.

"For service above and beyond the call of duty . . ."

MEDICAL CENTER IS OPENED

WASHINGTON, D.C. A strange phenomena in medical history officially opened here yesterday by Mayor Paul Shuping. "This towering building covering 6 blocks houses facilities for the varied medical needs of the city," reported Austin Nichols, who attended the opening with Dennis Seagle. The center will be operated under the direction of Dr. Charlotte Grindstaff. Her chief assistant will be Pat Sigmon. Dr. Dianne Nichols will be in charge of the psychology department. Prescriptions and other pharmaceutical work will be by Dr. Carol Claywell assisted by Sherlean McCall. Seeking to meet all medical needs, the center is unique in that it has an ambulance service and funeral department under the auspices of Clyde "Buster" Small.

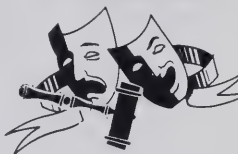

Others called from across the nation to serve in the new center as technicians, secretaries, and the other numerous jobs are Ken Newton, Kent Linkerton, Ramona May, Larry Martin, Katherine McCall, Glenn Lingsfeldt, Willard Smith, Keith Summerlin, Brady Woody, Rachel Mosteller, Cade Burns, Wayne Bradshaw, and Brady Hector.

WOMAN'S WORLD

NEW YORK Secretaries from all over the Union are holding their annual United Secretaries of America meeting in this fair metropolis. The theme of this year's meeting, as expressed by President Brenda Baker is "A Re-Humanization of the Business World". Receiving much support from Vice-President Pat Stamey, she stressed that increased usage of machines in the office was resulting in poor efficiency. "The personal relationship is gone. The office is now cold and stiff," stated secretary Melva Brinkly (Drexel Enterprises).

Others present in the BALTIMORE With the top women of the major cities of the nation in Baltimore this week, it is wondered how the rest of life at home can continue in their absences. Leon Traylor, chairman of this year's committee of men to choose America's top woman said judging was more than dif-

DIRECTOR LOSES SUIT

HOLLYWOOD Movie magnate Dean Farris was sued by composer Ginger Haigler in using one of her songs in Judy Huffman's last movie. The case proved to be a push-over for Attorney Wanda Hackney. She persuaded Judge Harold Henline to award damages to the songwriter. Musician Karin Holt and night club pop singer Frankie Claywell were star witnesses.

FASHIONS FOR M'LADY

NEW YORK Clyde Brown, new manager of New York's Lazarus, announced today the contract of designer Branchie to fashion next season's line for the top store. Models Brenda Hester, Wanda Hoyle, and Pam Lingerfelt are eager to report for fittings. The first fashion show under the new management will be held next month. Commentary for the show will be by Rachel Mosteller with the music provided by Leonard Brendel's orchestra, composed for the event by Dale Baker.

band of more than three hundred staying at the Waldorf Astoria were secretaries Linda Curtis (Amalgamated Trust), Hazel Secrest (Belk Association), Dorothy Baldrige (Liberty Life), Brenda Abec (Ford Motors), Jan Cordell (Virginia Life), and Ellen Farmer (Hackney Law). His board agreed. The choice of Edward Epley, Gary Grigg, Larry Martin, Wayne Berry, and Danny Reese is a well-guarded secret.

Vying for the title this year are Wraye Cooper Rhyne, Linda Mull, Jane Craig, Margaret Brittain, Belores Powell, Dianne

FLIGHT WITHIN SIX MONTHS

CARLE KENNEDY Aeronautical engineer Gary Jones today announced at the space capital of the world that the United States would send a manned flight to Mars within six months. Mechanical engineers David Hawks and Ed Hennessee are even saying that plans run ahead of schedule. Personnel director Don Secrest released the following Air Force officers as possible candidates for the flight: Gary Anthony, Bill Sweeney, Robert Wyatt, Johnnie Thomas, and Rondall Roper. Geologist Benny Walker will definitely be aboard to study terrain, as will journalist Linda Smith to record events for posterity.

Eddie Woods and nuclear engineer Gary Cox are working closely with NASA officials on the possibility of constructing defense sites on our neighboring planet.

SPORTS

James Devlinny holds top position in NASCAR as of yesterday's win at Daytona. Mechanic Leland Coleman attributed the win to a fireproof spark plug developed by Charlie Buff and Ray Foust.

Motorcyclist Sheldon Franklin was not injured Sunday when his cycle hit an embankment and forced him out of the race. His cousin Garland Franklin went on to win.

Pro-Football Coach Carl Traylor and wife Mary Beth were guests at a birthday banquet given at the Drexel Community Center, now open. Branch, Janice Carswell Berry, Pat Braswell, Brenda Norman, and Judy Hubbard Carpenter. Also in competition are Pat Deal, Dottie Cozart, Peggy Cagle, Edith Hennessee, Pat Burns, Elaine Barrier, Norma Deal, Drendie McAllister, Diana Rhoney, and Brenda Roark.

ated by Phil Deal. The banquet was attended by top pro-athletes: Tom Cooper, halfback of Baltimore Colts; Terry McClure, All-American quarterback of Washington Redskins; Ken "Moose" Morris, fullback, and Tom Settlemire end, of the pennant-winning Greenbay Packers, to name a few.

World famous surfing star Randy Teague is in Hawaii for competition during Sand and Surf week. He's expected to remain No. 1 surfer with first rides beginning tomorrow.

FLASH!

Hair-dresser Ann Gantt today sheared The Beatles, extinct singers of the '60's. The boys needed the money it seems, and also hoped to cash in on today's fad of bald singers.
